A Message From Our Principal

Congratulations to the yearbook staff for another excellent edition of the Pan-O-Ram. You are making a significant contribution to the recorded history of the school system in Seroe Colorado.

Twenty-one members of the Claus of 1958 have for college, the armed forces or immediate employment; to the student body is left the challenge of a year that has been unique in many respects. Driver Education became a part of the curriculum with forty-cight

We Dedicate

This Yearbook

To our parents, who have been the guiding light in our lives, especially during the past four years, we Seniors of 1956 dedicate this book. Their advice, companienship, and love have been the most cherished possessions of our high achool years.

As this book binds together the Class of 1958, may it also serve as a closer link between ourselves and our parents.

New School Activities

TREASURY

The school treassey originally came under the Sudent Countil; however, this year it is on its own. Mrs. Doeshou is the School Treassers, with Martha Branham as her assistant and Maria Van Ogtrop as the assistant in training. Maria will take over the assistant's job when Martha graduates.

The class treasurer gives the class does to the assistant, then makes out a disbursement slip. All the money drawn out of the treasury for class dances, class decorations, and the like, most go to Marthu B. Each month Marthu makes out a report which is signed by each class treasurer.

Stage Crew Creates A Scene

Row 1: S. Goodwin, B. Orborn, Advisor Mr. J. Leary, J. Tucker, G. Burkard, S. Ballard, C. Chapman, Row 2: B. ManNun, R. Monroe, T. Danlap,

The Stage Crew this year consists of nine how with strong and willing backs who, under Mr. Learly's super-vision, enhance the stage appearance for many performances. The backfores, possial peops, and the wonderful lighthing shoot play to be seen as both of the school plays do justice to the many hours they spend in making and setting up the stage. The Stage Crew also makes the sist for the Christions Program and Spingle

Music Festival.

During the greater part of the year, the members meet once a week, but, as performance time draws near, they meet more frequently in order to finish everything on time. These boys deserve a lot of credit for the difficult job that they do so well.

Oakies Are Winners Of GIRLS' BOWLING LEAGUE

The Girls' Bowling League started on a Monday in early October. The first day showed that some of the girls were rusty, but nothing was so had that a little practice didn't straighten out. Some of the new girls proved to be good bowlers and found places in the sen top averages.

The league winners were the "Oakies," captained by Kay Bechonas. Margo Hoore, one of the new bookers, bowled so well that the succeeded in winning high game, 212, and high series, 504. High average was bowled by Sidney DeWeese. The most improved bowler was Ginger Ward, who raised her average S5 Jins.
