OUR UNWANTED ORPHAN'S

—K. Hussey

To whoever is bemoaning the loss of a head or mind we are sorry to report that none have been found. In that special heaven for unclaimed objects many strange things may be seen but in Lago it appears that only the students fall into this category. Very few lost articles have found their way into the desks of teachers and we wish to compliment the students on their remarkable memories.

Pens, though, seem to be the special orphans of Lago High. Seven of these useful objects now repose, alone and unwanted in the deep and mysterious recesses of the desks of Miss Stengel and Miss Hagerhorst. One retired veteran of foreign wars, a pen-knife, is also living out his old age in the confines of the desk in Room 23.

Anyone who can offer a good home to these step-children and who thinks they might be his, may interview these objects at any time in their orphanages.

BASKETBALL

--Bob Norcom

Climaxing the Basketball season this year for the Varsity Team there will be three games on Friday, March 31. The Class League has already begun with the 7th grade playing the 8th grade and it will continue through next week, the play offs being on Friday. The foul shooting contest will also be held some time next week.

Looking like amateurs Wed. night the Hi-School team was sorely defeated by R. C. A. Mel Harris and Yonny Broken were the R. C. A. sharp-shooters. The R. C. A. team out played and out smarted our boys to the tune of 37-21.

Last Friday Lago-Hi gave the Caribe team a general over-haul to the tune of 29 to 19.

FLASH...

To all softball addicts: Softball practice will begin soon so dust your gloves and sharpen your spikes for an undefeated season.

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT

—M. B. Spitzer

Appearing before us tonight will be Miss Hutchinson's super production of "Charley's Aunt." Students are invited tonight, but, there will be another performance for less money tomorrow afternoon. Come one, come all, either 8:00 tonight, or 2:30 tomorrow! Don't forget your needle and thread because undoubtedly stitches will be necessary.

A lot of people have helped with this year's masterpiece. Warren Carroll and Johnny Hagendoorn have certainly used their stage crew well. Bill Hellwig, Bobby Griffin, Buddy Berrisford, Bob and Stanley Norcom, and Philip Schoormaker have been in there pitching just when Mr. Leary wanted them. I understand Mr. Leary's boys have really made a hit. The usherettes: Polly Mingus, Kathy Hussey, Carly Massey, and Mary B. Spitzer will be on duty, tonight. (Added attractions!)

Last, but definitely not least, congratulations and good luck to the cast! The whole school is behind you kids, so show your stuff! Here's to success. Dean (playing the title roll), Larry, Chuck, Keith, Dennis, John S. Yvonne, Mary Jean, Penny, and Rose Ann have practiced and practiced and practiced, and I do mean hard. We extend our special good wishes to Emmette Jones for upholding the old "the show must go on" tradition. Despite a pending appendectomy, Emmette will be on hand opening night. Mary Lou and Janet have been faithful prompters. We're sure the results will speak for themselves.

SOCIAL NOTES

There will be a dance for the play cast and stage hands given by the play cast on Saturday the 25th.

Dianne Wolf's going away party is tonite at the Yacht Club at 6:00.

BOATING REPORTER

QUESTION: WHAT IS THE IDEAL PLACE FOR A DATE IN ARUBA?

Mary B. Spitzer and Emmette J.--A dance at the light house to the music of the waves.

Janet Hoffman and Larry Morris--Palm Beach

Gloria Morris--Dinner at the Strand and then a quiet place to dance.

Lad Mingsu-- Driving around at Frenchman's Pass.

Bill Mello--Any place will do as long as I'm with Dotty L.

Miss Hutchison--It depends on what you are doing.

Carol Garber--Robert Hodges' House!

Ken Work--Dinner at La Scala and then the nightclub next to it.

Tubby S.-- The club for dinner and the movies.

Skipper G.-- The middle of the road under a street light.

Bob Tricarico and Bobby Hellwig--Any place and make the best of it.

Ted Palant--Down at the lagoon.

Mitzi Fletcher--Any place where a P-O-R reporter can't get near me.

Bobby Baum--Under a nice shady tree with a beautiful girl and a case of Pepsis (oh, Joan H.)

Bill Hellwig--The golf course.

TO THE EDITOR:

Much has been said about the sign-out book at the Canteen Dances, especially those at the club. I believe that we brought all this "signing the book" stuff upon ourselves. In the past, some of us made the excuse that we were going to Canteen and then went somewhere else and got into mischief. If we sign the time then our parents and Canteen Sponsors can check upon our whereabouts.

We have had about a year of this signing business and now we probably could behave. Our parents could try us for a few times on the honor system and see how it works at the Canteen. We sure don't like to be watched every time we go out because we are now at the age where we think we can take care of ourselves. Let's prove it by making Canteen sign-out unnecessary.

Sincerely,
A Sophomore

SCUTTLE BUTT

by Chuck Wilson

Raise the flags, give three cheers, Johnnie Hagendoorn is the first senior of this year's class to be accepted for college. His residence this fall will be Stevens Tech., Hoboken, New Jersey.

Last Friday night, loud voices, smoke and laughter were heard coming forth from Mary Lou's house. She had a slumber or rather a gab party and I suspect that we poys were dragged through the mud. I suggest that we make sure there is no mud on our coat tails before we open our mouths.

I must say that having the girls play basketball has not only brought out more spectators but it has added a few curves and angles to the game.

I have heard statements to the effect that students have been joy riding with unlicensed drivers outside the colony at night. Just a word to the wise--anybody caught riding with an unlicensed driver will find himself in jail. Also, an accompanying licensed driver, if caught, will lose his license.

Miss Huddison's secret ambition it to be a song and dance girl.

Miss Verdon (Y. H.) is having a fit because Jack Chesney (E. J.) has made up with Miss Spitzer.

SPRING IS HERE

Spring has sprung

The grass is riz

I wonder where the flowers is

Some say da bold lion da nang

But dat's absurd

I always hold

Da wing was on da bold.

WEEPING WILLOW

Dear W. W.,

Why do all the parties down here drag?

Perplexedly
A friend

Dear Friend,

Parties with "oomph" have usually had some planning before hand. Obviously, ours never do.

W. W.

JUNIOR HI JINX

M. Fernando

CAN YOU SEE:

The resemblance between Jack Wiley and a dog? (Nettie can.)

Those looks of hatred that Shirley Hewitt lings at Robert Hodges and Buddy Berrisford?

The look of heavenly bliss upon the faces of the newly engaged couple, Robert Featherston and Mary Ellen Straub? (He finally saved up enough money to buy a ring.)

Lad Mingus dressed as a gay caballer in the Pan American Day program?

That wolf-like expression on Buddy B's face?

Any relation between the 8-A class and the zoo? (They both make unusual noises.)

The lock which seems to say "Keep off" that Carol G. gives to any girl who looks at Robert Hodges? (Poor Patti!)

GIRLS' VARSITY TEAM FORMED C. Greene

It's here! Have you seen it? What? Why the girls basketball team, of course. They played their first game last Friday night. Top bad Caribe defeated them.

It seems that Nettie led Hi scoring with two baskets. Grace Macrini, Martha Sue Lloyd, and Vivian MacEachern, each scored one basket.

Have you heard some of the remarks that the team made about the Caribe girls? You haven't? Well, here are a few:

"Every time I looked up I saw an avalanche of white." "I know that they were at least 10 ft." "Do you think we will need much practice to beat them?"

Mr. Dewey has named the members of the first team. Nettie (One Man Team) Gregersen, Grace (Snazz) Macrini, Rose Ann (If I Can Get Away From Play Practice) Moyer, Nancy (Wonder Where The Ball Is) MacEachern, Gerda (Dutch) Sanberg, Patti (The Basket Is Too High) Pakozdi, Martha Sue (Lets' Go and Beat Them) Lloyd, and Evonne (Can I Tear Myself Away From Play Practice and Emmette) Hagendoorn.

We all hope that the team will beat all comers.

Wife, cunning little creature,
 Saw a bean and hit his teacher;
 Most impressive was the scene,"
 Willie said, "When bean met bean."

SHARPSHOOTERS WIN INTRAMURAL LEAGUE

Last Friday ended the intramural basketball league. The Sharpshooters, (consisting of Joe Carroll, Neil Carroll, Ralph Stahre, Robert Hodges, and David Lloyd) took first place from the beginning of the league, right through to the end. The highest point scorers on the Sharpshooter were: first, Robert Hodges, 70; second, Ralph Stahre, 56; third, Joe Carroll, 51.

The team standings at the end of the League are;

	WON	LOST
Sharpshooters	10	1
Set-Ups	06	6
Dead-Eyes	6	4
Two-Bits	55	6
Dead-Eyes	4	7
Face Setters	22	8

Highest point scorers of the league were:

- 1st Bob Tricarico
 2nd John Borbonus
 3rd Bob Hodges

TORNADOES ARE LEADING.

R. Borbonus

The Tornadoes have taken the league by storm with their expert playing in keeping the lead. The windy Cyclones are right up there fighting for first place. If there are prizes I recommend a booby prize for the drips, I mean Cloudbursts.

The team standings up to date are:

	WON	LOST
Tornadoes	12	1
Cyclones	99	4
Snowbounds	8	5
Hurricanes	7	6
Blizzards	3	10
Cloudbursts	1	12

GOLF NEWS

Last week-end Bill Hellwig's team won two points from Hartwick's team. Hellwig's team has 10½ points and does not play this week-end. (The golf medals have just arrived.)

Last week's scores: Al Leck-39; Bob Burbage-41, Bill Burbage-45; Bill Hellwig-52.
