LAGO TO PLAY FALCONS

CANTEEN DANCE AT CLUB by Hoffman

A semi-formal Canteen dance will be held in the Main Lounge of the New Esso Club tomorrow, March 4. From 7:30 to 11, Lago Students may dance to the Club juke box and a soda bar will be set up to take care of the refreshment angle. Bring a date (hint) and come prepared to spend a few pennies. Don't forget your canteen card or plan to buy one at the door.

This is a new idea and will be held on a trial basis. If you enjoy this dance and are on your best behavior, there will probably be many more nice things planned for us by the Club and Canteen. So make an effort to conduct yourselves like ladies and gentlemen.

LAGO MAY HAVE A PHOTO CLUB

Calling all Shutterbugs!! At long last the Photography Club has come to Lago High. The project is sponsored by Mr. Krebs, and supported by Bill Mello, Stuart Hayes, and Donald Cahill, enthusiastic photographers and well known camera clickers of Lago.

Monday is the red letter day when Mr. Krebs expects to know finally whether the club will materialize. If things have not been ironed out by then the project will not go through.

We hope all up-and-coming photographers interested in such a club will get behind it now.

EDITORIAL

How many of us know that there is a proposition before the Esso Board in our favor? It has been suggested that the west end of the new Esso club (open space on Big Lagoon side) be made a teen-age facility. As far as the Board's ideas go, they have thought of ping-pong tables, shuffleboard, and maybe some tables for after-the-beach lounging. According to the latest Esso Board minutes, the Board is open for ideas at present.

Why don't we tell them what we think of it? Maybe it is a good idea. Who knows? There may be room for more possibilities than they have thought of. Suppose we give our latest unique ideas, but quick. Now's our chance to get what we want. It won't last forever, so, let's go! Put your brainstorm on paper and leave it in Room 23. The staff will take care of it.

SCUTTLEBUTT

Chuck Wilson

Well, well, have you noticed the new swagger the seniors have? The reason for this is that their class rings have arrived.

The Juniors are still discussing the location of the Junior Prom. with various groups. (Should know Monday)

Hip! Hip! Hurray!--Last year's annuals have finally arrived!

Susie, stop being a wedge between Mac and Millie.

Everyone wishes to help the students and asks, "What would you like," or, "What do you want?", but the only one who has done anything is that mathematically minded fellow who showed movies a while back in spite of Red Tape.

I see Tinker is chasing again. (X. S. and E. M.)

Have X. and E. reformed or is it just to make things look better?

Did you notice the bars on the first floor--turning a thing of beauty into a cow-barn? (Too bad we have wall climbers in our midst)

CLASSROOM BONES

Trigonometry is when a lady marries three men at the same time.

A polygon is a man who has many wives.

ROVING REPORTER

QUESTION: HOW DOES THE CONDUCT IN THE HALLS AFFECT YOU?

Dianne Wolfe--I think it's awful. Something should be done about it.

Miss Pannoyis--It shatters my nerves and makes me very unhappy!

Ray Burson----It frightens me because there are so many guys bigger than I am.

Bill Mello----It could be improved but so far I have seen no "petting"

Anonymous-----It's like taking candy from a baby. What are they trying to make out of us, Emily Post's?

Dom. Macrini--I think it's all very stupid trying to reform us.

Fat Schad-----Why can't we have SOME fun before we go to work (?)

Jack Wiley---I like the conduct the way it is. It doesn't need any improvement.

Don Mac Each.-I ignore it. The noise makes me feel at home.

Nancy Koopman--It doesn't bother me. There's no need for a change.

Nancy Chip,---I like noisy halls. That is one of the marks of a good school.

Chuck Wilson--It sounds like a herd of cattle going to pasture.

DID YOU KNOW?

--Willy DeWeese wears size 3½ shoe?

--Miss Stengel's hair is turning gray? (Wonder why)

--Lago's Fred Astaires can't tell whether they are Richard or Robert in the Annual.

--Miss Verney a la Lilly is expecting her first in TEXAS?

--Phyllis Taylor wears glasses because of an astigmatism?

--Bill Moyer has ten toes and doesn't like any of them?

--That the library door-knob turns to the left to open?

--That Sally's favorite gum is Juicy Fruit?

--There are eighteen steps on the west staircase? (Count 'em)

FASHION NOTES

by Hussey

Fashion is a topic of interest and amazement all over the world and Lago is no exception. Sometimes it is rather hard to determine just what is in vogue but after much research your reporter has come up with some choice tidbits in wearing apparel.

Our first item shows that the trend in masculine attire is toward peek-a-boo shirts. The peek-a-boos are most becoming on the back of the shirt and are usually shown in clusters, the holes ranging from the size of bottle tops to small saucers. The patterns are preferably irregular and are designed to show the shade of tan the wearer has acquired.

For the less conservative and more daring boys, two or three clearly stamped lip-stick prints on a white shirt form another back interest. Girls, take warning--No longer are you the only authorities on "Blush Red", "Ripe Cherry" or "Pink Ecstasy". This new male fad has already spread lip-stick know-how.

"Bo-dangles" have become "the thing" with the boys but in our research we have discovered that many girls are secretly yearning for them, too. Our advice is--Arise girls! Break the boys' "Bo-dangle" monopoly and demand equal rights. Let your motto be--"To get a beau to dangle, wear a *Bo-Dangle!"

TORNADOES AHEAD!

In the girls' intramural basketball tournament, the Tornadoes continued in their path of destruction by defeating the Cloudbursts (just a little drizzle) 30 to 2 on Tuesday. The Cyclones were snowed under in a 12 to 6 defeat by the Snowbounds. The third game of the day between the Hurricanes and Blizzards ended in a tie with the play-off going to the Hurricanes.

The present team standings are as follows:

TEAM	WON	LOST
Tornadoes	6	1
Snowbounds	4	3
Hurricanes	4	3
Cyclones	4	3
Blizzards	2	4
Cloudbursts	1	6

JUNIOR HI-JINX

Patti's loose again, so watch out Griffin you poor guy.

B. Brown is certainly trying hard to get Peter B.'s attention. What next?

Rickie K. doesn't want anyone to know that she has a crush on Danny J., so we won't mention it.

It looks as if Mary E. S. has fallen for one of the Featherston's but she doesn't know which one.

Pat E. is getting mighty popular these days. Last Sat. night 29 boys went up to her house to see her.

Kay N. and Buddy B. are trying to upset the world so let's look out (they knocked down the globe in room 8).

The three-musketeers of the eighth grade are Nancy MacE., Nancy Chippendale, and Bob Borbonus.
