

HAIL TO THEE!

Here's to you, fellow students of dear old Lago. This week we throw our most descriptive adjectives at you, the living substance of our most honorable institution. We salute you for your unquenchable spirit, your unshakable lightheartedness in the face of such adversities as unfinished algebra assignments, incomplete English themes and overduetiology folders. We admire your gay outlook on life, the bright smile with which you greet a failing mark.

Your ever present determination to be the best, to outdo your acquaintances in teacher-baiting is one of your most remarkable qualities and worthy of loud applause.

Your resourceful ingenuity and imagination have resulted in some of the most diabolically clever schemes to drive teachers insane, upset classes, and prevent any harmful seepage of knowledge into our astonishingly ignorant minds.

Complimenting you on your many characteristics, we hope that nothing will ever spoil the good spirits with which you face life today.

*****

RUMOR DEPARTMENT: Now we're not sure --- in fact, no one is --- but we've heard rumors to the effect that all schools in Aruba (and that includes us!) will be closed next Tuesday in honor of the opening of the Curacao legislature!

*****

From the musical sounds which pour forth at every hour of the day from room 1, the whole school should be cognizant of the fact that our Spring Music Festival will be well received on May 18 and 19 at the Esso Club. Read all the details in next week's Pan-O-Ram.

*****

SO, YOU THINK THIS IS A DARN SHORT WEEKLY --- Don't forget, this was a darn short week!!

SUBJECT: Variety Show

DATE: Friday 4, and Saturday 5

PLACE: Esso Club Theater at 8:00 P.M.

PRICE: Adults fls 2:00 Children fls 1

REMARKS: Red hot talent. First Class performance. Priceless entertainment.

P.S. Be sure to come.

STOCKHOLDER'S REPORT

Pan-O-Ram Annual of 1951.

Dear Share-holders;

The Annual is now approaching a state of semi-completion. Cover design, copy layout and financial arrangements have all been decided on and the production contract has been signed.

All of the write-ups have been turned in, edited, and are now being typed on the ("copy sheets" which are sent to the Myers Company of Topeka, Kansas for publication.

Most of the photography work is also taken care of. All of the portraits for the class pages have been taken, and but we still need a lot of good informal shots, so if you have any pictures which you think are suitable or have any opportunity for taking some, don't hesitate to bring them in.

The staff has done a lot of work and has a lot more ahead of them, but they are still confident of meeting the deadline. When asked about the quality of this year's annual, Bill Moyer, editor, said: "This year's Pan-O-Ram beggars description. It is stupendous! Colossal! Gigantic! Magnificent! As a matter of fact, I have so much confidence in its excellence that I have already bought a copy myself."

Katie Hussey, assistant editor, said: "The '51 Pan-O-Ram is the best yet! It's wonderful! I can't wait to get my copy.

(Con't on P. 2)

*****

CROSSED WIRES

KNOW PLENTY DIRT STOP CARLA GLEB BAGGALEY
JAMIESON BROZ SPITZER TRICARICO RICHEY
INVOLVED STOP DANGEROUS BUSINESS STOP
GOING INTO HIDING STOP

This was a telegram which the editors received several days ago from our star snoop, stool-pigeon and dirt collector, CENSORED.

We were quite alarmed, of course, when we first got this plaintive message, but we have since been able to lure our boy from his underground bomb-shelter long enough to give us all of the juicy facts, which we are publishing below.

After getting the information, we sealed our reporter back in his concrete cell at his own request, and we regret that we are unable to disclose his name at this time, for safety's sake.

Our man can't be sure whether Carla thinks she's giving Gleb a rough time or whether it's the other way around, but which ever it is, their romance is certainly having its ups and downs.

It would appear that Boris has finally moved his siege guns away from the Spitzer castle and abandon his campaign, or at least that's the impression we get when we see him flirting with Katie.

Tricarica, don't you ever give up? Is it worth it?

Bob Drew is certainly having a rough time keeping the girls off his neck. Why don't you give Polly a chance, Bob?

Speaking about true confessions, Bob Drew is thinking of changing his name to Dick Tracy since he was so successful in pumping information out of Baggaley at the Fish fry last Sunday night. Drew tells us he got some very interesting facts about Ann Jamieson. However, Ann has come to us with bended knees, clasped hands and a big sack of hush money, so of course we wouldn't think of mentioning anything about it.

Correspondent X

*****

HAPPY DAY!

The day has come...it's the fourth of May
The Juniors are not happy and gay!

English term papers are due in Room 22,
And to hand them in late is strictly taboo!

So write, you fools, write! write, write,
write,
Life is no longer sweetness and light.

Single side paper: lines double spaced:
Bibliography neat: not one mark erased.

Very precise margin: not one word mis-
pelled:

Correctly placed footnotes: or you might be expelled.

And after slaving and working and bearing such grief,
The Juniors tonight will draw a breath of relief.

W. De Weese

*****

(con't from page 1. col.2)

I have already paid my full 7 guilders.

Rose Ann, business manager, says: "I have sunk my entire fortune in this annual, and it can't miss! It is sure to be the best annual yet! Rush out and buy your copy now!"

Miss Mills, faculty advisor, said; when approached by our reporter: "The Pan-O-Ram? Words can't describe it! It is the greatest annual ever published Pictures! Write-ups! Sports! History! Printed inside covers! Senior section! Exclusive layout designs!"

When we finally managed to gag Miss Mills, who was fairly bubbling over with enthusiasm, we went over to the office to get Mr. Hofman's opinion: "If you want a good investment, this is a wonderful way to sink your dough. The school has put plenty into this project, and it can't fail to be the most outstanding annual since last year!"